About Us

IRT is a growing non-profit organization based in New Delhi committed to promoting the social, cultural, moral, and educational empowerment of backward communities across India.

The organization focuses on the most rural and backward regions in the country where people are deprived of basic needs and amenities.

The core intervention areas of IRT include but are not limited to education, health, relief to the poor, and community development.

Mission

IRT's mission is to strive for helping the most backward communities in the country by reducing their miseries through various empowerment and relief projects architected by expert social engineers.

Vision

IRT's vision is

1. To transform the most backward communities in India into significant citizens who will actively participate in the nation-building process, and
2. To enable them to significantly contribute to the nation's social, economic, and cultural development

Community Centres

Community centres are usually used for prayer and worship but many other common purposes of community centres and positive uses. They offer a space for people to gather, socialize, and build relationships.

They also provide educational workshops and classes on topics like literacy, job skills, and health.

These centres host awareness program of Nagarik Vikas, cultural events, art exhibitions, recreational activities and performances, enriching the community's cultural life. They offer programs for youth, including after-school activities and tutoring, to keep them engaged in positive ways.

Additionally, community centres provide support services like counselling and health clinics to help people with their needs. They serve as meeting places for local groups and organizations, and in emergencies, they can act as temporary shelters for those in need.

AQEEQA PROGRAM

We have another project known as Aqeeqa program under which we provide cooked food for orphans and poor students in our hostels/orphanages. Similarly, we distributed meat in slum areas, in this project we reach out to families or areas where people are in need and provide one time meal. This project is done in different states and different places.

RAMZAN 2025

(Food Kits Distribution)

We extend our heartfelt gratitude to our donors for making the Ramzan Project-2025 a resounding success. With your invaluable support, we were able to distribute over 52,000 food kits (comprising Iftar Kits and Eid Gifts/Fitr) during Ramzan across 22 states. Your generosity has made a significant difference, and we sincerely thank you for it.
